LATE MR. MAUGHAN
Memorial Tablet Unveiled

"To live in the heart we leave behind is not in die." This inscription was the appropriate sentiment at the impressive ceremony at the Nairn street Public School the morning when representative educationists gathered in the school hall to unveil a memorial tablet to the memory of late Mr. Maughan (formerly Director of Education), one of the best loved teachers this State has known.

Among the glittering list of speakers, Mr. E. V. Darkin (Minister of Education), Messrs. T. H. Maughan, M. Maughan, F. Maughan, W. T. McCauley (Supernumerary Education), Mr. W. Bennett (president of the South Australian Public Teachers' Union), C. B. Forrest (secretary of the South Australian Public Teachers' Union), Mr. C. W. Price (head of the staff of the Adelaide University), and Dr. W. Renoue (representing the South Australian Teachers' Union), and Dr. C. E. G. Smith (representing the South Australian Teachers' Union) spoke, each in their own way, of the man who had been an inspiration to teachers and students alike.

The Director of Education, Mr. W. T. McCoy, in his address, paid tribute to Mr. Maughan's accomplishments and his dedication to education, and expressed the hope that the memorial tablet would serve as a reminder of his contributions.

THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL
Mr. M. Blackett, the Attorney-General, in his speech, praised Mr. Maughan's efforts in the field of education and his commitment to the betterment of the community.

MR. R. E. REID
The Hon. R. E. Reid, the Minister for Education, also spoke, highlighting Mr. Maughan's role in education and his impact on the lives of countless students.

The ceremony concluded with a vote of thanks to all those who had attended, and a moment of silence was observed in memory of Mr. Maughan.
