ELDER CONSERVATORIUM.

Additional Teacher of Singing.

A Distinguished Exponent.

The Council of the University of Adelaide has appointed Mr. Clive Carey, of the Royal College of Music, London, as an additional teacher of singing at the Elder Conservatorium.

Mr. Carey will take up his duties at the beginning of the current year, and it is expected that he will be in residence at Elder during the current year, and that he will be in residence at Elder during the current year, and that he will give classes to the students of the Elder Conservatorium. He has already given many concerts and recitals in London, and his name is known far and wide as one of the most prominent names in the world of music.

The Adelaide Observer.

SHAKESPEARE SOCIETY.

Fortieth Annual Report.

At the University last night, the Adelaide Shakespeare Society held its Forty-ninth Annual Meeting. The President, Mr. W. H. Jones, read the report of the Committee, which showed that the Society had made considerable progress during the past year, and that its membership was now over 1000.

The President then introduced Mr. A. W. M. P., who read a paper on "Shakespeare and His Contemporaries." Mr. P.'s paper was well received, and many of the members expressed their admiration for the author's knowledge of the subject.

After the reading of the report, the President presented Mr. P. with a volume of "Shakespeare's Dramatic Works," which had been presented by the Author's Executors.

The Society then adjourned to the Hall of the University for a dinner, where they were entertained by the University Presidents and other distinguished guests.

GIFT TO UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE.

Sir Thomas Elder, K.C.M.G., has presented to the University of Adelaide a valuable gift in recognition of the University's appreciation of the late Sir John Elder's services to the University. The gift is a gold watch, and is valued at £500.

The University is grateful for this generous gift, and hopes that it may be of service to the University in the future.