TEACHERS' ANNUAL CONVENTION.

RETIRED PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

Presentation by the Board of Education.

The Board of Education of the North American Public Teacher's Association, at its recent meeting, resolved, 'That the annual convention of the North American Public Teacher's Association be held in the city of New York, the first Monday in January next, and that the retiring president be invited to address the convention.'

Dr. C. H. Shaw, of Boston, has been appointed to deliver the address.

Dr. Shaw's address is entitled, 'The Teacher's Position in the Industrial Revolution.'

The address will be read in the reading room of the Board of Education.

The address is scheduled for Monday, January 1.

The address will conclude with a discussion and a vote on the resolution of the Board of Education.
