SIR JAMES BARRETT,

See the concluding paragraphs at the Science Congress.

THE NEXT CONFERENCE.

To be Held in Western Australia.

At the meeting of the general council of the Australian Association for Ad

The scientific community in Australia was heatedly discussing the implications of the recent conference in Western Australia.

ECONOMIC ASSOCIATION.

Australian Body Proposed.

At the meeting of the social and state life section of the Australian

The creation of an Australian economic association was proposed to address the growing need for economic integration and collaboration.

THE PRESIDENT-ELECT.

Sir Thomas Lyle Elected.

The general council of the science committee on Monday unanimously elected Sir Thomas Lyle as the new President. From 1899-1915 Professor of Natural Philosophy at the University of Edinburgh, Sir Thomas had been a prominent figure in the scientific community.

SCHRÖDINGERS EQUATION.

No information provided.

SPEECH OF THE PRESIDENT.

Mr. Gibb Miall had been honored for his contributions to the Australian scientific community.

The Mueller Medal was awarded to Professor Sir Edward David and Sir George Edmonds, recognizing their significant contributions to the field of astronomy.

The first Mueller Medal was awarded to Dr. John Gibb Miall in recognition of his outstanding contributions to the Australian scientific community.

SUN-SPOT.

No information provided.

SUGAR:

No information provided.