NOT AN EVANGELIST

Australia House in London

Dr. LONDON APPOINS

Dr. London, who recently returned from a trip to Egypt, paid a state visit to Australia House and met Sir Edward Lucas (Agent-General), who addressed the Adelaide Town Hall in London, a previous president of the Commonwealth Club of London. Dr. London, also met with his wife, the President of the Royal College of Surgeons of South Australia, during his visit to London.

LEAVES £33,000

Estate of Mrs. Raven

The will of Mrs. Jessie Frances Raven, who died recently, has been filed for probate. The will states: "I give all my real and personal estate to my husband, Alexander, for his sole use and enjoyment during his life, after which it shall go to my daughter, Elizabeth, for life, and then to my son, John, for life, after which it shall be equally divided between my three children, Mary, Elizabeth, and John." The estate is valued at £33,000.

LEAVES £33,000

Estate of Mrs. Raven

The will of Mrs. Jessie Frances Raven, who died recently, has been filed for probate. The will states: "I give all my real and personal estate to my husband, Alexander, for his sole use and enjoyment during his life, after which it shall go to my daughter, Elizabeth, for life, after which it shall be equally divided between my three children, Mary, Elizabeth, and John." The estate is valued at £33,000.

LEAVES £33,000

Estate of Mrs. Raven

The will of Mrs. Jessie Frances Raven, who died recently, has been filed for probate. The will states: "I give all my real and personal estate to my husband, Alexander, for his sole use and enjoyment during his life, after which it shall go to my daughter, Elizabeth, for life, after which it shall be equally divided between my three children, Mary, Elizabeth, and John." The estate is valued at £33,000.

LEAVES £33,000

Estate of Mrs. Raven

The will of Mrs. Jessie Frances Raven, who died recently, has been filed for probate. The will states: "I give all my real and personal estate to my husband, Alexander, for his sole use and enjoyment during his life, after which it shall go to my daughter, Elizabeth, for life, after which it shall be equally divided between my three children, Mary, Elizabeth, and John." The estate is valued at £33,000.

LEAVES £33,000

Estate of Mrs. Raven

The will of Mrs. Jessie Frances Raven, who died recently, has been filed for probate. The will states: "I give all my real and personal estate to my husband, Alexander, for his sole use and enjoyment during his life, after which it shall go to my daughter, Elizabeth, for life, after which it shall be equally divided between my three children, Mary, Elizabeth, and John." The estate is valued at £33,000.