THE MEDICAL SCHOOL OF THE UNIVERSITY.

The following account of the Medical School of the University of Adelaide was prepared at special request by the Guardians of the Faculty of Medicine for the Medical Journal of Australia in 1876.

Although the University of Adelaide was established in 1874, it was not until 1876 that the first medical students were enrolled. The Medical School was fully established in 1876, and the first degrees were conferred in 1880. The school was formally opened in 1876.

Children's Hospital and Queen's Home. The Children's Hospital in North Tce., and the Queen's Home are two of the most important institutions for the care of children in Adelaide. These institutions provide a range of services including medical care, education, and social support.
