PROFESSOR NAYLOR WELCOMED.

At the fall meeting of the North American study group of the World's Work, Professor Vivian Dally Naylor, who recently moved from London to Toronto, was welcomed by the group. He was introduced by Professor E. M. Hare, who noted that the Canadian group had always been conscious of the importance of the work of the world's work in the development of the educational system in Canada.

The meeting was attended by a large number of educators and educational administrators, including Dr. W. H. Phillips, who spoke on the importance of the work of the world's work in the development of the educational system in Canada.

The meeting was adjourned with a vote of thanks to Professor Dally Naylor for his excellent presentation.

PROFESSOR NAYLOR's ADDRESS.

Professor Dally Naylor addressed the group on the importance of the work of the world's work in the development of the educational system in Canada. He emphasized the need for a more comprehensive approach to education, one that would take into account the needs of all students, regardless of their socioeconomic background.

He also spoke on the importance of the work of the world's work in the development of the educational system in Canada, and the role that it could play in the development of a more equitable and just society.

The meeting was adjourned with a vote of thanks to Professor Dally Naylor for his excellent presentation.

REG 19-10-25

WORKERS' EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

REG 19-10-25

STUDENTS' BREAK-UP.

There was a general gathering in the Student Union at the University of Toronto on Saturday evening, when the students held a farewell banquet in honor of the departing faculty. The speeches were made by Dr. W. H. Phillips, who congratulated the students on their success, and by Professor Dally Naylor, who expressed his appreciation of the students' efforts. The evening ended with a dance, during which the students enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

REG 19-10-25

WORKERS' EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

REG 19-10-25

STUDENTS' BREAK-UP.

There was a general gathering in the Student Union at the University of Toronto on Saturday evening, when the students held a farewell banquet in honor of the departing faculty. The speeches were made by Dr. W. H. Phillips, who congratulated the students on their success, and by Professor Dally Naylor, who expressed his appreciation of the students' efforts. The evening ended with a dance, during which the students enjoyed themselves thoroughly.