Mr. F. L. Parker Appointed Clerk of Assembly.

Following the death of Mr. Alfred L. Parker, Clerk of Assembly, an official announcement was made, it is understood, that Mr. F. L. Parker has been appointed Clerk of Assembly. The late Mr. Parker was a personal friend of Mr. Parker, and it is expected that he will carry on the work in the same manner as his predecessor.

Dr. J. A. G. Hamilton.

Although suffering a long illness, the death of Dr. J. A. G. Hamilton, one of the most distinguished practitioners in the Adelaide area, came as a shock to his many friends and colleagues. His death occurred suddenly on January 3, 1930, at his home in the suburb of Norwood. He was a well-known figure in medical circles and had been a member of the Medical Board for many years.

Dr. Hamilton was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, on November 25, 1870, and received his early education in that city. He graduated from the University of Edinburgh in 1892 and immediately proceeded to the study of medicine in London. In 1894, he returned to Scotland and took the degree of Bachelor of Medicine from the University of Glasgow. He then went to Australia and settled in Adelaide, where he established a practice.

Dr. Hamilton was a member of the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh and the Royal College of Surgeons of London. He was also a fellow of the Royal College of Physicians of London. He was a member of the Medical Board of South Australia and was a past president of the Medical Society of South Australia.

Dr. Hamilton was married and had two children. He was a member of the Methodist Church and was a tireless worker for the advancement of medical science. He was a man of great integrity and was respected by all who knew him.

The funeral took place at the North Road Cemetery on January 10, 1930.

THE LATE DR. J. A. G. HAMILTON.

Mr. F. L. Parker, who has been appointed Clerk of Assembly, has decided to resign his position.

A Page of Past History.

By K. W. W.

There is nothing more fascinating than a page of history, and there is no link into our past as quickly or more intriguingly as a page of history. In this context, a page of history can be anything that links into our past, be it a small publication that was valued at the time, or a newspaper clipping from the past. Whatever the case may be, a page of history is a valuable tool in understanding the past.

A True Sportsman.

Dr. Hamilton loved the hunter, the fisherman, and the angler. He was a keen sportsman and enjoyed a good game of golf. He was also a great lover of hunting and was a member of the Royal South Australian Turf Club. He was a keen supporter of the Royal Adelaide Club and was a member of the Royal South Australian Turf Club.

Dr. Hamilton was a great supporter of the arts and was a member of the Adelaide Art Gallery. He was a great lover of music and was a member of the Royal Adelaide Club.

A Well-Earned Rest.

After 44 years of practice in South Australia, Dr. Hamilton retired from the practice on December 31, 1929. He had been living in retirement for the last few years, and had decided to retire from the practice on his 60th birthday. He had been living in retirement for the last few years, and had decided to retire from the practice on his 60th birthday. He had been living in retirement for the last few years, and had decided to retire from the practice on his 60th birthday. He had been living in retirement for the last few years, and had decided to retire from the practice on his 60th birthday. He had been living in retirement for the last few years, and had decided to retire from the practice on his 60th birthday.