SOUTH AUSTRALIAN MUSIC.

A DEMAND FOR THE BEST.

Just though pleasant, in smooth, Mr. Foote says, and is only too anxious to receive others.

"South Australia has a genuinely national community," and Mr. W. H. Foote (A.B.C.M.) has for a while been the assistant at good concerts, and he has been given a firm mind for its enjoyment. Art is, of course, "as good as good time," and Mr. Foote is no exception to this rule. It is one degree removed from a fashionable establishment, but it is eligible to the pretty people of the "South Australian" class.

Mr. W. H. Foote.

Instruments used in the performance. An arrangement of orchestral music, the results of which it is the purpose of this article to show, was brought to Adelaide by Dr. E. K. Harold Davies to demonstrate the excellence of the orchestra.

Mr. W. H. Foote (A.B.C.M.) conducted the orchestra, and, as can be seen in the accompanying photograph, he is a member of it.

The orchestra was a splendid one, and the performances were delightful. The piece was so arranged that the music was heard distinctly, and the orchestra was entirely composed of South Australian performers.

Mr. Foote's Valuable Work.

Mr. W. H. Foote, A.B.C.M., conductor of the South Australian orchestra, and also director of the well-known Symphony Band, was also present.

"Mr. Foote is one of the most interesting and enthusiastic of the young generation of musicians," said Mr. Foote, "who have been brought up under the influence of some of the greatest musicians of the world. He is a fine conductor, and his work will be of great benefit to the musical life of South Australia.

Mr. Foote's orchestra was a splendid one, and the performances were delightful. The piece was so arranged that the music was heard distinctly, and the orchestra was entirely composed of South Australian performers.

South Australia Considering.

At present the Department of Education is considering the question of securing more funds for the purpose of acquiring more orchestras and bands. This is not likely to be an easy matter, but the department has found that there are many problems which need to be solved.

No decision has been reached by South Australian authorities, but it is clear that the scheme is not likely to be successful.

Reg. 29.3.25.

MUSIC IN SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

Mr. Foote is a man of great musical talent, and he has a keen appreciation of the work of other musicians. His orchestra is composed of South Australian performers, and he has been responsible for many of the orchestras and bands in South Australia.

Mr. Foote's orchestra was a splendid one, and the performances were delightful. The piece was so arranged that the music was heard distinctly, and the orchestra was entirely composed of South Australian performers.

South Australia Considering.

At present the Department of Education is considering the question of securing more funds for the purpose of acquiring more orchestras and bands. This is not likely to be an easy matter, but the department has found that there are many problems which need to be solved.

No decision has been reached by South Australian authorities, but it is clear that the scheme is not likely to be successful.

Reg. 29.3.25.

ALIGNEE FRANCAISE.

The Alliance Francaise was met at the Grosvenor Hall by the imposing figure of the French Minister, Mr. Francois Pelissier. From the late Mr. Pelissier gave an address on "L'Education de la Jeunesse," and the difference between the intellectual and physical education of the French people was discussed. Mr. Pelissier showed that we are well armed, but that our education is not strong enough to withstand the attack of the French people in the war.

Mr. Pelissier, who is the father of the French philosopher, Jean-Jacques Rousseau, was a man of great eloquence and knowledge, and his address was received with great applause.

South Australia Considering.

At present the Department of Education is considering the question of securing more funds for the purpose of acquiring more orchestras and bands. This is not likely to be an easy matter, but the department has found that there are many problems which need to be solved.

No decision has been reached by South Australian authorities, but it is clear that the scheme is not likely to be successful.

Reg. 29.3.25.

SCHOOL FORESTRY.

South Australia Considering.

At present the Department of Education is considering the question of securing more funds for the purpose of acquiring more orchestras and bands. This is not likely to be an easy matter, but the department has found that there are many problems which need to be solved.

No decision has been reached by South Australian authorities, but it is clear that the scheme is not likely to be successful.

Reg. 29.3.25.

ALIGNEE FRANCAISE.

The Alliance Francaise was met at the Grosvenor Hall by the imposing figure of the French Minister, Mr. Francois Pelissier. From the late Mr. Pelissier gave an address on "L'Education de la Jeunesse," and the difference between the intellectual and physical education of the French people was discussed. Mr. Pelissier showed that we are well armed, but that our education is not strong enough to withstand the attack of the French people in the war.

Mr. Pelissier, who is the father of the French philosopher, Jean-Jacques Rousseau, was a man of great eloquence and knowledge, and his address was received with great applause.

SCHOOL FORESTRY.

South Australia Considering.

At present the Department of Education is considering the question of securing more funds for the purpose of acquiring more orchestras and bands. This is not likely to be an easy matter, but the department has found that there are many problems which need to be solved.

No decision has been reached by South Australian authorities, but it is clear that the scheme is not likely to be successful.

Reg. 29.3.25.

Elder Conservatorium String Quartet.

The first concert for the year was given by the Elder String Quartet at the Liberal Union Hall on Tuesday evening, which was a remarkable success. The performers were composed of the Elder students, and the concert was a success.

Mr. Pelissier, who is the father of the French philosopher, Jean-Jacques Rousseau, was a man of great eloquence and knowledge, and his address was received with great applause.

SCHOOL FORESTRY.

South Australia Considering.

At present the Department of Education is considering the question of securing more funds for the purpose of acquiring more orchestras and bands. This is not likely to be an easy matter, but the department has found that there are many problems which need to be solved.

No decision has been reached by South Australian authorities, but it is clear that the scheme is not likely to be successful.

Reg. 29.3.25.

Elder Conservatorium String Quartet.

The first concert for the year was given by the Elder String Quartet at the Liberal Union Hall on Tuesday evening, which was a remarkable success. The performers were composed of the Elder students, and the concert was a success.

Mr. Pelissier, who is the father of the French philosopher, Jean-Jacques Rousseau, was a man of great eloquence and knowledge, and his address was received with great applause.

SCHOOL FORESTRY.

South Australia Considering.

At present the Department of Education is considering the question of securing more funds for the purpose of acquiring more orchestras and bands. This is not likely to be an easy matter, but the department has found that there are many problems which need to be solved.

No decision has been reached by South Australian authorities, but it is clear that the scheme is not likely to be successful.

Reg. 29.3.25.

Elder Conservatorium String Quartet.

The first concert for the year was given by the Elder String Quartet at the Liberal Union Hall on Tuesday evening, which was a remarkable success. The performers were composed of the Elder students, and the concert was a success.

Mr. Pelissier, who is the father of the French philosopher, Jean-Jacques Rousseau, was a man of great eloquence and knowledge, and his address was received with great applause.

SCHOOL FORESTRY.

South Australia Considering.

At present the Department of Education is considering the question of securing more funds for the purpose of acquiring more orchestras and bands. This is not likely to be an easy matter, but the department has found that there are many problems which need to be solved.

No decision has been reached by South Australian authorities, but it is clear that the scheme is not likely to be successful.

Reg. 29.3.25.

Elder Conservatorium String Quartet.

The first concert for the year was given by the Elder String Quartet at the Liberal Union Hall on Tuesday evening, which was a remarkable success. The performers were composed of the Elder students, and the concert was a success.

Mr. Pelissier, who is the father of the French philosopher, Jean-Jacques Rousseau, was a man of great eloquence and knowledge, and his address was received with great applause.