IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO DESCRIBE THE DAZZLING EFFECT WHICH THE PERFORMANCE HAD ON THE AUDIENCE.

WIT AND HUMOR

Professor Philipson Defense

The Alliance Fraternity met at 7 p.m. on Thursday, December 28th, at the University Club, and the meeting was opened by the President, Mr. W. H. Sealy, who gave an address on "The Spirit of the Times." The meeting was then adjourned for the time of the next meeting, which will be held on Thursday, January 11th.

School Forestry.

Now the public are being made aware of the importance of forestry by the efforts of the Forestry Department, which is making great progress in the provision of timber for the State. The Department has been in existence for many years and has made great strides in the past few years. It is hoped that the public will continue to support the Department and that it will continue to make progress.

Mr. D. G. Barker, a former student of the School, has been appointed as the new Director of the Forestry Department, and it is expected that he will make a great contribution to the work of the Department.

STRING QUARTET CONCERTS.

Professor Pearsall's New Quartet in D Major.

The Athenaeum Club of Adelaide has announced that a new quartet in D major, composed by Professor Pearsall, will be performed at a concert to be held on the 15th instant. The quartet is the result of much effort on the part of the composer, and it is expected that it will receive a cordial reception from the public.

Professor Pearsall, who is well-known as a musician, has composed many works, and his quartet in D major is a notable addition to his repertoire. The concert will be held in the Athenaeum Hall, and it is expected that a large audience will attend.

The concert will commence at 8 o'clock, and the performers will be as follows: Miss M. J. Jones, viola; Miss M. J. Allen, cello; Mr. J. G. Pearsall, violin; and Mr. J. G. Pearsall, piano.

The following is the programme:

The concert will be followed by a reception in the Athenaeum Hall.

Professor A. H. Richardson, Director of the Music Department, will give a recital on the piano, and the concert will be concluded with a vote of thanks to the performers and the audience.
