PROFESSOR PHILLIPSON’S RESIGNATION.

To the Editor.

Sir—Very many of the staff of the South Australian University, having decided de-terminately upon the resignation of Professor Phillipson, through his resignation being made public, were greatly concerned about the effect their resignations might have upon the University. I trust that Professor Phillipson will not consider such action as an ultimatum, but he is prepared to meet any demands which may be made upon him, and if he does not consider any such demands as just, he will continue to work, and to carry on his work, and to make progress, in the best interests of the University.

The resignations of the many, the many of the staff, are due to the fact that the University is not able to give them the necessary support. The University is not in a position to give them the necessary support, and they have decided to resign.

I have been asked to make this statement, and I am prepared to do so, and I am sure that the University will be pleased to make it.

A. L. E. W.

LEWELLIN.

The Register, August 5th.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION.

The program of Extension lectures for 1924, which was begun in 1923, has been completed and is now in course of publication. The lectures have been delivered by various lecturers, including Mr. W. J. M. Kirkman, Dr. H. B. Horsfall, and Mr. A. M. Kirkman. The lectures are published in a series of pamphlets, and are available for purchase at the University.

THE THEATRE IN ENGLAND.

Dr. HEATON’S Impressions.

The monthly meeting of the Repertory Theatre Club was held at the Lady Colman Hall, Hindmarsh, on Monday night, with Mr. J. G. McDonald in the chair. A lecture was delivered by Dr. H. Heathe on his impressions of the theatre in England. After giving an amusing outline of the history of the English theatre and its development during the war, Dr. Heathe said that he was greatly impressed by the excellence of the acting. During his tour, the repertoire was remarkably broad, and he was greatly pleased with the variety of plays that were being produced. The acting was of a high order, and the production of new plays was a feature of the theatre.

FORESTRY DEPARTMENT VACANCY.

Nothing has yet been done regarding the selection of a successor to the late Mr. H. E. Corbin, who has accepted an appointment as Forester to the New Zealand Government. The position of Forester is an important one, and it is hoped that a suitable candidate will be found soon.

FOREST QUARANTINE.

The foresters of South Australia have been warned to be on the lookout for quarantine pests. The government has issued a bulletin warning foresters to be vigilant in the matter of quarantine pests, and to report any suspicious cases to the Department.

ROBERT T. J.

The Register, August 5th.

ATTACK ON UNIVERSITY.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.

The University has been attacked by the press, and the decision of the council was made public. The attack was made on the grounds that the University had not been able to provide satisfactory accommodation for the students.