MEDICAL RESEARCH.

Plea for Encouragement.

Infectious Diseases and Welfare Work.

Further evidence was given before the Federal Commission on Public Health in Adelaide on Thursday by Dr. Adelaide, director of the treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis, the treatment of infectious diseases, and the encouragement of medical research, and the administration of child welfare.

The members present were the Chair, Dr. George Sonz, Dr. P. S. Hedges, Dr. N. H. Johnstone, and Dr. P. H. Marsden. The meeting was held in the Adelaide Hospital.

Child Welfare.

Dr. E. B. Ball, said he had been contacted by the Government regarding the need for "no charge" hospitals. He had been informed that the Government was considering the establishment of a "no charge" hospital in the city of Adelaide.

Infectious Diseases.

Dr. Ball said that the spread of infectious diseases was not confined to the city of Adelaide. It was a problem that affected the whole country. The Government was considering the establishment of a "no charge" hospital in the city of Adelaide.

The Commission's Work.

Dr. Ball said that the Commission was working towards the establishment of a "no charge" hospital in the city of Adelaide. He said that the Government was considering the establishment of a "no charge" hospital in the city of Adelaide.

Register 18-5-25.

ELDER CONSERVATORIUM.

Elder Conservatorium, String Quartet.-The Elder Conservatorium, String Quartet will take place on Thursday, 25th May, at 8 p.m., in the Elder Hall, Shepparton. The quartet consists of the following members: Miss M. Elder, Miss E. Elder, Miss M. Elder, and Miss E. Elder.

AUSTRIAN MUSIC EXAMINATION BOARD.

The University of Melbourne, Adelaide, and the University of Sydney, have arranged for the examination of music students in the theory of music.

Register 18-5-25.

AUSTRIAN MUSIC EXAMINATION BOARD.

The University of Melbourne, Adelaide, and the University of Sydney, have arranged for the examination of music students in the theory of music.

Register 18-5-25.

AUSTRIAN MUSIC EXAMINATION BOARD.

The University of Melbourne, Adelaide, and the University of Sydney, have arranged for the examination of music students in the theory of music.