THE WAR MEMORIAL.

By Rev. A. C. Stevens, M.A.

A few people realize the importance of a War Memorial in any city.

The War Memorial is the most fitting tribute to the sacrifices made by the men who gave their lives in the service of their country.

It is a symbol of remembrance, a reminder of the brave deeds of those who fought for freedom, and a lasting testament to their spirit of self-sacrifice.

The War Memorial should be a place of pilgrimage for all who have lived through the war, and for future generations who will never know the experiences of those who fought.

The War Memorial is a monument to the memory of those who served and sacrificed, and a reminder to the world of the importance of peace and understanding.

Lecture by Dr. H. Haughton

Dr. H. Haughton delivered a lecture on the War Memorial during a approaching meeting of the Library Committee of the Public Library, under the chairmanship of Mr. R. C. Breese (Vice-President) and Mr. J. S. Moir (Chairman). The subject of the lecture was the War Memorial and its importance.

Dr. Haughton mentioned the object of the War Memorial, which was to pay tribute to those who had given their lives in the service of their country. He also discussed the different types of War Memorials and their significance.

The lecture was well-received by the audience, who appreciated the insights and information provided by Dr. Haughton.

Lecture by Professor C. W. Mitchell

Professor C. W. Mitchell, of the Adelaide University, gave a lecture on the War Memorial during an annual Literary and Scientific Society meeting. The lecture was well-received by the audience, who were impressed by the depth of knowledge and research presented by Professor Mitchell.

Professor Mitchell discussed the history and evolution of War Memorials, their significance in society, and the various forms they take.

The lecture was well-received by the audience, who appreciated the insights and information provided by Professor Mitchell.

The War Memorial is a symbol of remembrance, a reminder of the brave deeds of those who fought for freedom, and a lasting testament to their spirit of self-sacrifice.

The War Memorial is a monument to the memory of those who served and sacrificed, and a reminder to the world of the importance of peace and understanding.

Lecture by Professor C. W. Mitchell

Professor C. W. Mitchell, of the Adelaide University, gave a lecture on the War Memorial during an annual Literary and Scientific Society meeting. The lecture was well-received by the audience, who were impressed by the depth of knowledge and research presented by Professor Mitchell.

Professor Mitchell discussed the history and evolution of War Memorials, their significance in society, and the various forms they take.

The lecture was well-received by the audience, who appreciated the insights and information provided by Professor Mitchell.

The War Memorial is a symbol of remembrance, a reminder of the brave deeds of those who fought for freedom, and a lasting testament to their spirit of self-sacrifice.

The War Memorial is a monument to the memory of those who served and sacrificed, and a reminder to the world of the importance of peace and understanding.

Lecture by Professor C. W. Mitchell

Professor C. W. Mitchell, of the Adelaide University, gave a lecture on the War Memorial during an annual Literary and Scientific Society meeting. The lecture was well-received by the audience, who were impressed by the depth of knowledge and research presented by Professor Mitchell.

Professor Mitchell discussed the history and evolution of War Memorials, their significance in society, and the various forms they take.

The lecture was well-received by the audience, who appreciated the insights and information provided by Professor Mitchell.

The War Memorial is a symbol of remembrance, a reminder of the brave deeds of those who fought for freedom, and a lasting testament to their spirit of self-sacrifice.

The War Memorial is a monument to the memory of those who served and sacrificed, and a reminder to the world of the importance of peace and understanding.

Lecture by Professor C. W. Mitchell

Professor C. W. Mitchell, of the Adelaide University, gave a lecture on the War Memorial during an annual Literary and Scientific Society meeting. The lecture was well-received by the audience, who were impressed by the depth of knowledge and research presented by Professor Mitchell.

Professor Mitchell discussed the history and evolution of War Memorials, their significance in society, and the various forms they take.

The lecture was well-received by the audience, who appreciated the insights and information provided by Professor Mitchell.

The War Memorial is a symbol of remembrance, a reminder of the brave deeds of those who fought for freedom, and a lasting testament to their spirit of self-sacrifice.

The War Memorial is a monument to the memory of those who served and sacrificed, and a reminder to the world of the importance of peace and understanding.