CORPORATION LEVY FAVOURED

The case of the municipal corporation for the adoption of a municipal band has received a most encouraging reception by the community and the members of the community, and it is believed that with a little more effort the municipal corporation will be able to secure the services of a municipal band for the city.

Mr. W. H. W. Foote, C.R.C.M., in an address to the community, said: "The need of a municipal band is not only for the entertainment of the community, but also for the promotion of the general welfare of the city. The band will provide a source of revenue for the city and will also promote the public welfare."

KEEPS UP THE RISE

A municipal band has been established in the city of the community, and it is believed that the band will prove to be a great asset to the community.

The first concert of the band was held in the city hall, and a large audience was present to witness the musical performance. The band played a variety of songs, including popular and classical music, and the audience was highly pleased with the performance.

The band has been well received by the community, and it is believed that the band will continue to grow in popularity and become an integral part of the community's cultural life.

Mr. Foote concluded his address by expressing his hope that the band will continue to receive the support and encouragement of the community, and that the band will continue to contribute to the cultural life of the city.
