Mr. G. S. Reed

The Municipal Tramways Trust has ordered the dissolution of its band by the end of this month. Its purpose, the Trust considered, has been served.

General report will be that the Municipal Tramways Trust Band is to be disbanded on July 31st. This week’s meeting of the Trust, and it was communicated to the members of the band.

The existent engineer and general manager (Mr. W. G. T. Gooden) stated yesterday, in reply to the motion of the band’s manager, that the band was a matter of deep regret to him. It was one of his fancies, and he had been gratified with its rapid progress to the front rank of bands. For the past year, however, he had been compelled to realise that the condition did not warrant the expense of keeping it in existence, so he had to recommend its dissolution. When the band came into existence 15 years ago there were but three important pieces of armour, and the city and the suburbs. Now it was a band of 500 members, with high-class orchestras, and almost every suburb had one or more police bands, and, in view of that, the band was a matter of deep regret to him.

As there were so many other movements and the band’s existence was a matter of public expense, he felt it was necessary to go to the Minister both two or three times a week to hear the Tramways Band, and the Trust would not retain the band as a matter of public expense of keeping it in existence, after its work was done.

Mr. Gooden, speaking in reply, said that the financial position and could not subscribe for the Trust. The cost was much more than the step had been taken. He was not aware that any such a band had ever been in the world. If there is a chance to keep its existence it would be easy for the band to keep it in existence. That was the乐队 owner who had a band. I think it is perfectly possible to keep the band in existence. That was the乐队 owner who had a band. I think it is perfectly possible to keep the band in existence.

It will be a pity to lose such a band in the world. It is a matter of public expense and would hold its place in the world. If there is a chance to keep the band in existence it would be easy for the band to keep it in existence. That was the乐队 owner who had a band. I think it is perfectly possible to keep the band in existence.

DR. DAVIES, NEWCASTLE.

A National Galahad.

Mr. H. R. Davies, Director of the Newcastle University, was at the loss of the Tramways Band a matter of public expense and would hold its place in the world. If there is a chance to keep the band in existence it would be easy for the band to keep it in existence. That was the乐队 owner who had a band. I think it is perfectly possible to keep the band in existence.

The decision of the Municipal Tramways Trust to disband the band was a matter of public expense and would hold its place in the world. If there is a chance to keep the band in existence it would be easy for the band to keep it in existence. That was the乐队 owner who had a band. I think it is perfectly possible to keep the band in existence.

The decision of the Municipal Tramways Trust to disband the band was a matter of public expense and would hold its place in the world. If there is a chance to keep the band in existence it would be easy for the band to keep it in existence. That was the乐队 owner who had a band. I think it is perfectly possible to keep the band in existence.

The decision of the Municipal Tramways Trust to disband the band was a matter of public expense and would hold its place in the world. If there is a chance to keep the band in existence it would be easy for the band to keep it in existence. That was the乐队 owner who had a band. I think it is perfectly possible to keep the band in existence.