NEW LEGAL FIRM

Women Lawyers Join Forces

ADELAIDE LEADS WAY

The first firm in Adelaide for women is that of Miss Dorothy Somerville, B.A., L.L.B., and Miss Mary Knox, B.A., L.L.B., who are in partnership at 41, North Terrace. The firm will be known as Knox & Somerville, and will specialize in all kinds of legal work, in which both partners have much experience. They will offer their services to women at a lower rate than that charged by male solicitors. The partners are keenly interested in the women's movement, and are members of the Women's Suffrage Association.

Miss Knox is the first woman to be admitted to the Bar in South Australia, having received her L.L.B. degree at the Adelaide Law School in 1925. She was called to the Bar in 1926. Miss Knox has been a prominent figure in the women's movement in South Australia, and has been a member of the Women's Suffrage Association since its inception in 1914. She has been active in many women's organizations, and has been a crusader for women's rights all her life.

AN ADELAIDE DRAMATIC SOPRANO

Adelaide has produced a new dramatic soprano in the person of Miss Maureen Colman, who made her début at the Opera House last night in the rôle of the title character in Verdi's "Aida." Miss Colman, who is only 21 years old, has been studying music in Italy for the past two years, and has been praised by some of the foremost singers and musicians in the country. She is a member of the Adelaide Choral Society, and has won several awards for her singing. She is also a proficient pianist.

ELDER CONSERVATORY

The various classes which will be held at the Elder Conservatory next term will be announced in another column. Special attention will be given to the study of the piano by Miss Cyril Carey, who is also the student conductor. The students of the school will be required to take a course in the study of harmony, which should be made at the earliest possible opportunity. The Conservatory will also commence in the second week. All information will be procured by Miss Cyril Carey, director of the Elder Conservatory.

Reg 20/2/26

THE PUBLIC EXAMINATIONS.

Some Amusing "Howlers."

The public examinations conducted by the various boards this year, with all their triumphs and disappointments, have come to a close. The results are announced in a Manual issued by the University of Adelaide, which gives the complete syllabus of the examination papers, and the marks obtained by candidates. The few pages of Notes by Examiners are also of great value.

The public examinations conducted by the various boards this year, with all their triumphs and disappointments, have come to a close. The results are announced in a Manual issued by the University of Adelaide, which gives the complete syllabus of the examination papers, and the marks obtained by candidates. The few pages of Notes by Examiners are also of great value.

Dr. M. J. Kendall, representing the Rhode Scholarship Trust, was present at the dinner of the University Club yesterday evening. Dr. Kendall has been a trustee of the trust for many years and was a member of the first committee of the trust. He is a distinguished medical man, and has been a member of the staff of the Royal Prince Alfred Hospital for many years. Dr. Kendall is also a member of the staff of the University of Adelaide, and has been associated with the medical profession in South Australia for many years.