GOLD STANDARD
Return in Australia

PEOPLE WILL BENEFIT

(By Rev. A. C. Stevens, M.A.)

The announcement that South Africa intends to return to the gold standard is an event that may affect many other countries will follow such action. The return to the gold standard is an important economic decision.

Everybody has been aware that since 1929 the world has been beset with economic problems. This crisis has affected different countries in different ways. In Australia, for example, the gold standard has been seen as a way to maintain stability and trust in the currency.

The gold standard is a system in which a country's currency is directly linked to a precious metal, most commonly gold. This system was widely adopted in the 19th century and provided a stable economic environment.

THE FIRST WOMAN TO BE APPOINTED A PROFESSOR OF ANATOMY

Dr. Mary Lavinia Reese, who has been appointed to the Chair of Anatomy at the London School of Medicine for Women (now known as the University of London), is seen as a significant step in the field of medical education.

Industrial Lawyer

As an educationalist, writer, and lawyer, Dr. T. Hewittson (Deputy President of the Industrial Court) had a distinguished career. Born in England in 1895, he was sent to Victoria by his parents five years later.

The SNOWBALL OF KNOWLEDGE

Professor Robertson's Contribution

An interesting reference to Professor Bradford Robertson, of the Australian University, appears in the current issue of "My Magazine." An article entitled "The Snowball of Knowledge" deals with the importance of a great scientist's work on a divine variety to discover the "why" and "how" of things. It is the search for something useful and material that can be turned to practical and useful ends, such as the snowball.

The Chief Justice (Sir George Murray), at the opening of the new building, said that Miss Mason was to have the South Australian by the Literacy School, and as an example, to the city of Adelaide for the future.

CONCERT ARRANGED

Miss Alice Mallow, A.M.C.A., pupil of the famous pianist, Miss Mason, is to give a concert in aid of a charity, at the Lincoln Hall in Oxford, on November 28th, at 8 p.m. The concert is in honor of the late Miss Mason, and 100 per cent of the net proceeds will be devoted to the ideal of the subject.

Dr. T. Hewittson's appointment to the Imperial Cancer Research Fund is a recognition of his contributions to the field of medicine.

FINANCIAL SPIKE

Despite the wars generally, political uncertainty, and the health of the currency, there has been a steady growth in the value of the currency, which is now largely determined by the gold standard, and is reflected in the increasing value of the currency.
