A HOSPITAL FOR WOMEN.

TO BE BUILT IN ADELAIDE.

A FINE INSTITUTION PROMISED.

Adelaide is to have a women's hospital and the building of an up-to-date institution is about to be pushed rapidly.

Some time ago an influential deputation visited the medical profession and other bodies, who realized the disabilities and wants experienced by female patients in hospitals. A deputation was sent to Europe, and Misses Mary Bower and Ada Webb, A.M., A.M., go to Paris, with the other members of the deputation, to visit the hospitals there. Misses Bower and Webb are expected to give us much valuable information.

A hospital for women has been promised the Government, and in addition to the above, Misses Bower and Webb are expected to give us much valuable information.

The hospital is to be built in Adelaide, and the Government has promised to give it a large sum of money. The hospital is expected to be completed in a few years.

A new advisory board has been appointed to superintend the building of the hospital.

The hospital is expected to be completed in a few years.
