Continued

That this conference desires to express its appreciation of the work done by the salaried teachers in the education system in the establishment of trade unionism in the public schools.

In view of the recent amendments and the conditions of the Industrial Registration Act, it is advisable that they be re-elected. Therefore, it is hereby recommended to include such a condition in the next conference, that the salary importance of the public school teaching union.

That the executive committee be asked to report at the next meeting on the possibility of forming a public school teaching union.

That the conference end its business and adjourn.

REG. 22. 5. 25

TEACHERS' UNION.

The Annual Conference.

The annual conference of the South Australian Teachers' Union was held in the Price Hall of the Adelaide High School on Wednesday evening, with the President (Mr. A. J. Garrett) in the chair. The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and adopted, and the annual general meeting was convened.

The President referred to the work of the executive committee during the general and the progress of the union. The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and adopted.

The conference adjourned.

ECONOMIC SOCIETY.

South Australian Branch Formed.

It is generally agreed by people of all classes that the economic problems of the world require a wide field for the application of the principles of trade unionism. The solution of these is of the utmost importance to the workers of the world. The conference is therefore pleased to announce the formation of a new branch of the Economic Society of South Australia, which will be known as the South Australian Branch.

President's Report:

In response to the request of the president, the report of the secretary and treasurer were read and adopted.

The conference adjourned.

REG. 22. 5. 25

"CHRISTIANITY AND LEISURE."

Diocesan Social Union Addresses.

At St. Peter's Cathedral on Sunday evening, the series of addresses on social questions of the Diocesan Social Union, was continued, the subject being "Christianity and Leisure." The orator, who spoke from the text "Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." (Matt. 11:28), said that through this age of materialism, in which the study of life is a question of the right to rest at the heart of life. The right to leisure was the right to rest at the heart of life.