British Visit Proposed

SURE OF WARM WELCOME

(THE TIMES) LONDON

"British schoolboys are sure to win favour among many English boys, and are sure to receive the warmest welcome wherever they go. There is no doubt that the tour will be a success, and that the boys will make many friends in Australia." - Sir C. G. G. M. P. Stanford, Member of Parliament.

AN ECONOMIC SOCIETY

When the Senate Committee met in Adelaide, in August, a committee was appointed to investigate the state of the Adelaide University and to consider the possibility of organizing an Economic Society to cover both Australia and New Zealand. The committee presented its report, and it was decided to form a branch in this State. The aims of the Society are to promote the study of economics, to encourage research, and to disseminate information on economic topics. The Society will hold regular meetings and will publish a quarterly journal.

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

Thursday, the secretary, Mr. R. J. M. Moloney, met the members of the Classical Association for the first time this year. The Association, which is open to all students of classical literature, aims to promote the study of Latin and Greek.

THE ELDER CONSERVATORY

The Elder Conservatory, under the patronage of Mr. T. W. Russell, will give a series of concerts in the coming season. The concerts will be held at the Elder Conservatory, and will feature the works of some of the greatest composers, including Beethoven and Mozart.

FORESTRY TRAINING

VALUE OF AUSTRALIAN SCHEME

The State Council of Forestry (Excise) has decided to extend the scheme for the training of foresters. The scheme, which was established in 1923, provides for the training of young men in the principles and practices of forestry. The scheme is administered by the Forestry Department of the State, and is funded by the Commonwealth Government. The scheme is open to all young men who are interested in forestry and who meet the eligibility criteria.
