A VISIT TO QUEENSLAND

Dr. Richardson's Impressions.

Dr. A. M. F. Richardson, M.A. (Director of Agriculture), arrived in Adelaide on Saturday from a recent tour of the Riverina district of New South Wales and the River Murray area. His first visit to the State was in 1894. On this occasion he was accompanied by his son, the Rev. Dr. F. A. M. Richardson, who is the secretary of the Adelaide Diocesan Council. The party was entertained at the Mayor's residence and a tour of the city was made.

GIFTS TO UNIVERSITIES.

ANOTHER BENEFITATION IN SYDNEY.

Colonel Oswald Went, who died in May, has left an estate valued at $100,000 for the benefit of the University of Sydney. The will, which was made in 1880, provided that the estate should be held in trust until the age of 21, when the income would be paid to the University.

THE DEATH OF MR. G. W. FOOTE.

The death of Mr. George W. Foote, a prominent member of the South Australian parliament, occurred on Saturday. He was a member of the House of Assembly for the last 20 years.

Dr. Garnett's Lecture.

At the request of a group of public lecturers in the Prince of Wales Theatre, Dr. H. S. Garnett, the well-known physician, spoke on some points on which he had availed himself of the services of the University in the course of his work. The lecture was well attended and the audience paid close attention to the subject.

THE ENNIS MEMORIAL.

The Ennis Memorial, a monument to the memory of the late Mr. John Ennis, was unveiled on Saturday. The foundation stone was laid by the Prime Minister, Mr. D. H. Morgan, but the ceremony was marred by the absence of the Governor, who was unable to attend.

THE UNIVERSITY SENATE.

Students Ask for Representation.

A deputation of students from the University of Sydney, on Saturday, called on the Minister for Education to demand representation in the Senate. The deputation stated that the Senate, which was established by the University Act of 1855, had never been consulted on any matter of importance, and that the students were therefore entitled to representation.

KINDERTAGEN UNION.

A Growing Work.

The annual meeting of the Kindergarten Union was held at the Union Hall on Friday evening. The President (Professor McKeown) spoke on the subject of the union, and there was a good attendance.

Value of Work Recognised.

The Chairman said that kindergarten work was an important part of the educational system, and that the union undertakes the training of teachers. He said that the union was established for the purpose of training teachers, and that it was required to take charge of the training of students.

The union exist for that purpose, and was helped by several Government grants. The work was being done quite satisfactorily, but more work should be taken to make it better known.
