THE UNIVERSITY.

Sir Ernest Rutherford's Lectures.

The Council of the University, at its meeting on Tuesday, adopted the recommendation to hold a course of lectures to be delivered by Sir Ernest Rutherford in September. The subject of the lectures is to be the atomic theory, and they will be held in the Physics Hall on the subject. The lectures will be open to all, and will be free of charge. The Council also decided to invite other artists to appear at the same time as Sir Ernest Rutherford.

WAITE AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH INSTITUTE.

The Fourth Annual Report of the Waite Agricultural Research Institute has been published. The Institute, which is one of the leading agricultural research institutions in the world, has made great progress in the past year. The report, which is available from the Institute, contains a wealth of information on the latest developments in agricultural research.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE.

The Rhodes Scholarship Committee has announced the names of the six Rhodes Scholars for the year 1927. The six scholars are: Mr. H. B. F. Perkins, Mr. J. T. Morgan, Mr. W. C. M. Anderson, Mr. R. Murray, Mr. H. H. Thompson, and Mr. F. D. Burden. The selection of the scholars was made by a committee of experts in the field of agriculture.

DEMONSTRATOR IN BOTANY.

Miss E. M. Davis has been appointed demonstrator in botany at the University of Adelaide. Miss Davis has been a student of the University for several years, and has shown great promise in the field of botany. She will be responsible for the instruction of the students in the subject.

DEAN OF THE FACULTY OF LAW.

The Faculty of Law has elected Mr. T. E. Johnston, Q.C., as Dean. Mr. Johnston is a well-known lawyer and has been a member of the Faculty for many years. He will take up his duties on the first of September.

THE STRUCTURE OF ATOMS.

Sir Ernest Rutherford, the eminent physicist, has announced that he will give a course of lectures on the structure of atoms next month. The lectures will be held in the Physics Hall on the subject. The lectures will be open to all, and will be free of charge. The Council also decided to invite other artists to appear at the same time as Sir Ernest Rutherford.

AWARDS TO CHILDREN OF SOLDIERS.

At the meeting of the Royal Commission on Education, a number of awards were announced. The awards were made to children of soldiers who have lost their parents in the war. The awards will be paid quarterly and will be used to defray the expenses of the children.

PRESENTATION OF AWARDS.

The Royal Commission on Education has presented a number of awards to children of soldiers who have lost their parents in the war. The awards will be paid quarterly and will be used to defray the expenses of the children.