Fertile Past.
The great agricultural producing area of the State has received several recent visits from leading agriculturists from Australia, the United States of America, and Great Britain, with the result that a number of useful suggestions have been made for the development of the area. The visits were sponsored by the Western Australian Agricultural Bureau, and were arranged by the Federal Agricultural Bureau, New South Wales, and the South Australian Agricultural Bureau.

Lectures by Professor Balfour and others.

The first lecture in the series was delivered by Professor Balfour on August 23, 1925, at the Agricultural Bureau, and was attended by a large audience of farmers and agricultural workers.

The lecture was entitled "Agriculture in the United States of America," and was delivered by Professor Balfour, who is well known for his work in the field of agricultural economics.

Professor Balfour stated that the agricultural industry in the United States is one of the most important industries in the world, and that the United States is one of the leading agricultural producing countries.

He also stated that the United States is a large producer of wheat, corn, and cotton, and that these crops are a major source of revenue for the country.

Agricultural Bureau Congress.

The Agricultural Bureau Congress was held in Perth on August 23, 1925, and was attended by representatives from all parts of Australia.

The Congress was held in the Guildhall, and was opened by the Governor of Western Australia.

The Congress was held to discuss various questions relating to agriculture, and to promote the interests of the agricultural industry in the State.

The Congress was well attended, and a number of useful suggestions were made for the development of the agricultural industry in the State.
