MAID TO ORDER

GALA PERFORMANCE
AFTER THE SHOW

Sammy Lee's

"WHERE EVERY NIGHT IS NEW YEAR'S EVE"

* Continental and Chinese Food
* Sensational Floor Shows . . . 12.30 Nightly
* Open from 6 p.m. to 5 a.m.
* Price £1.1.0, including Supper. Stay as long as you wish. It is imperative that liquor be ordered before 5.30 P.M.

BX4743 47 YORK STREET :: A.W.A. BUILDING BX4784
"IN THE HEART OF DOWNTOWN SYDNEY"
THE SYDNEY UNIVERSITY PLAYERS presented a Revue for the first time last year in order to assist the University Centenary Appeal. “Into the Woods” was, despite opposition in Another Place, most successful; the Centenary Appeal received £100; the cast enjoyed themselves; even some members of the audience were amused. So great in fact, was the enthusiasm kindled that Players have been entreated to stage another revue. The Inner Council resisted as long as it could; but at last, after pleadings and importunities from the down-town critics, in spite of rival offers from The Firm, The Old Vic, and The Tiv, they yielded. We were in show business again. The less reputable branch of show business, perhaps. But if we made money from a Revue, we could afford to produce “straight” plays, and so we have temporarily abandoned our high ideals and joined The Rank and Vile.

The example of the Centenary Appeal, however, was strong and again we are helping a university appeal. “Maid to Order” will assist, at the suggestion of our Patroness, Mrs. S. H. Roberts, the fund for a Concert Grand Piano to be placed in the Great Hall as a memorial to the late Lady Anderson, widow of the late Emeritus Professor Sir Francis Anderson.

There is a great deal of work necessary for the staging of a revue. Producers must cope with cast; cast must cope with producers. Musicians are temperamental; stage hands will fall off ladders into the chorus; costumes don’t arrive for some of the cast—but never for the ones we’d send on “made to order.” It’s all very frustrating. But it’s fun. And even the people who spend all their time at rehearsals repeating those oldest words of the theatre—“Don’t worry darlings, it’ll be right on the night”—are sometimes proved true.

Let us then give praise to famous men, and infamous women: we’ve tried to get them all into the “Credits” and for any omissions we’ll blame the printer. The publicity-hunting paranoics who spend the evening scene-stealing in the bright lights we can forget; they get enough fame from Aunt Phoebe’s sotto voce “There’s our Wilhemina!” even without the name in “Credits” and neon. But think, in your charity, of the rude mechanics (a phrase from a play) who labour back-stage, with no bouquets, no applause, no glamour, and their only compensation being sometimes called into the dressing room to fix a jammed zipper. We take back all the harsh things we said in rehearsal, and offer them our gratitude.

The features which made “Into the Woods” so popular, and set it apart from the usual University revue are here again, although we’ve changed some of the jokes. Bob Hope and Bing Crosby started yelping about copyright so we had to do it. We’ve suggested that for their next film they take “The Road to . . .” But we have original music by Stannard and Mulcahy, and we have kept the scripts clean (more or less). A minor feature of Players Revue is the wearing of black ties and dinner jackets by the comperes. This has been criticized by The People Over the Way: they seem to resent our attempts to better our poor selves. Why, we’d be in white ties and tails this year, but The Buttonhole couldn’t fit Lazar.

We’ve enjoyed this revue. We hope you do.

Good night, and sleep tight. But beware, the hangover . . .

o’b
MAKE YOUR EVENING RENDEZVOUS AT...

"THE PAM-PAM"
Sydney's Most Select COFFEE LOUNGE

"THE PAM-PAM"
12 MACLEAY STREET, POTTS POINT
HOURS: 4.30 p.m. to Midnight.
(Closed Monday)

FL 1183

IT'S WELL WORN BUT IT'S_WORN WELL !!!

MEN OF EXPERIENCE CHOOSE

DONE-LOP

FOR

SMOOTHER, SAFER NON-SKID RIDING

FL 1183
SYDNEY UNIVERSITY PLAYERS PRESENT

MAID TO ORDER

1953 REVUE

PRODUCED AND DIRECTED BY PETE LAZAR

MOTHER WILL BE FURIOUS!
GEE HOW GREAT

Music by Peter Stannard, Lyrics by Peter Stannard, Lazar, and Benjamin.

Maids: Jill White and Nancy Crispin-Smith
Waiters: Gary Scrimgeour and Tom Torda or Jan Bunch and Judy Barrell
Ballerina: Toni Perrin

EH?

Written and produced by Llavid Boyd.

In reverse order of appearance:

The Master: John Cummings
The Nurse: Jan Bunch
The Doctor: Brian Harvey
The Maid: Peggy Fordham
The Daughter: Sonia Walsh

IT'S DANGEROUS (What the heck . . . )

Music by Lance Maltz and, Lyrics by Gerry Donovan, Choreography by Marianne Seemann.

Sung by: Constance Horton
Danced by: Nigi Seemann and Bill Ford

THE ROYAL FLUSH

Presented by St. Paul's College.

HOW?!?! (Big Chief Pro. Ed. would likum showum how - - um!)

Music by Peter Stannard, Lyrics by Peter, with due thanks to Melbourne.

Sung by: Jan Bunch, Jill White, Judy Barrell, Nancy Crispin-Smith

LOCO-MOTIVE or Another Enjin Bit the Dust

Written by Elmer Q. Winome, Produced by Pete and David.

Princess Tamara: Frances O'Flynn
Richard: Hugh Macindoe
Porter: Barry Simons
First Woman: Sonia Walsh and a cast of thousands.

INTER

and time for a . . .

NESTLE

Girls: make him buy some of our new, i . . .

CHOCO. F

. . . they last for hours. You
ORDER

AND NO FATHER"

- THERE AIN'T NO GAL (Tsk! Tsk! . . .)
  Music by Lance Mulcahy. Lyrics by John McKellar.
  Sung by Gary Scrimgeour

- BEHIND THE IRON SHIRTING or Gawaine to Run All Night
  Written by Elmer Q. Winsome, from an idea by Barry Simons. Produced by Ddavid Lloyd.
  First Knight Frank Merrick  Sir Cincure John Cummings
  Second Knight Berry Smith  Guinevere Sonia Walsh
  King Arthur Barry Simons  Maid Margot Noseda
  Merlin Ian Lacey  Page Jill White
  Gwendoline

- STRANGE AS IT SEEMS
  Words and Music by Lance Mulcahy.
  Sung by Judy Barrell  Danced by Toni Perrin and Sam Goldstein
  With "The Gigolos"

- SAND IN MY CHOUX
  Written and Produced by Neville Thiele.
  Alfred le Musset Barry Simons  Frederic François Chopin Ian Lacey
  George Sand Nancy Crispin-Smith

- ANOTHER KIND OF JUNE
  Music by Lance Mulcahy. Lyrics by John McKellar and Gerry Donovan.
  Sung by Jan Bunch and Rupert Bligh  Danced by The Revue Chorus

WAL

E.

improved, cellophane-wrapped

FROGS

You can feel them doing you good.
- I'll Pay The Piper (I should think so . . . Pro. Ed.)
  Music by Lance Mulcahy. Lyrics by Gerry Donovan and John McKellar.

- Calling The Tune
  Words and Music by Peter Stannard.
  Danced by Nancy Crispin-Smith, Gary Scrimgeour and the Revue Chorus.

- Faroukulele or The Gracie Fields
  Featuring a Ukulele, and Barry Simons.

- "The Coronation"
  Special Effects by Albin Balogh. Lighting Directions, Albin Balogh.
  Excess Programme Space provided by John Poiner.

- Flutterbie
  Danced by .......... Nigi Seemann
- THE BOAR'S HEAD INN
  Written and produced by Neville Thiele.
  Sir John Falstaff ........................................ Rupert Bligh
  Mistress Quickly ........................................ Barbara King
  Prince Hal .................................................. Hugh Macindoe

- LI'L OLE ME . . . (You'll like this, fellers . . . Pro. Ed.)
  Music by Lance Mulcahy. Lyrics by Gerry Donovan and John McKellar.
  Sung by .................................................. Jill White
  Danced by .................................................. Bill Ford and Ian Lacey

- FIVE-RING CIRCUS or There's One Borne Every Four Years
  Written by Frank J. Merrick and George (no relation) Molnar. From an idea by Big Brother Mike Lazar.
  Produced by Pete and David.
  First Russian Announcer .......................... Hugh Macindoe
  Second Russian Announcer ....................... Rupert Bligh
  Third Russian Announcer ......................... Brian Harvey
  First American Announcer ....................... Ian Lacey
  Second American Announcer ..................... Frank Merrick
  Russian Director of Purges ..................... Tom Torda
  American Director of Purges ................... Barry Simons
  Soldiers, Constabulary, N.K.V.D., Police, Squad 21 men

- AIN'T MY BABY GRAND
  Music by Lance Mulcahy. Lyrics by Gerry Donovan and John McKellar.
  Sung by .................................................. Nancy Crispin-Smith and Gary Scrimgeour

- MAID TO ORDER
  Music by Lance Mulcahy. Lyrics by Gerry Donovan, John McKellar and Chester.
  The Revue Cast.

---

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN
PETER STANNARD
With Lance Mulcahy, wrote all the music for the show. As shown by the photograph, Peter is a life-loving soul who asks for little credit, and subsequently receives less. Will always be remembered by Revue-goers for "The Virgin Song" (1951) although he now denies any connection with it.

PEGGY FORDHAM
The only Business Manager I have met who can boast of the ability to write cheques while she is sleeping. However, Peggy doesn't get much opportunity to display her prowess, as business managers don't get very much chance to sleep while a revue is in the making.

CHARLIE GOLDBERG
This year's Assistant Stage Manager, listening with awe to words of wisdom from Jim Young. Under such fine tuition, Charlie is now very efficient at hitting nails with hammers, tying knots with rope, cutting wood with saws, and prefixing words with adjectives. It is rumoured that he studies medicine in his spare time.

Tom Torda
Never before has a revue publicity man had so many good and varied ideas for advertising, all of them ridiculously expensive. Nevertheless, he did a good job against tough opposition by keeping to a simple maxim: "Publicity that is vile, doesn't rank highly." Smokes the pipe he is wearing for effect only.

PETER MCDONALD
The pretty ballet girls on stage wouldn't look nearly so pretty if it hadn't been for make-up man Peter, and his little boxes and tubes. He wields these so well that he can even make companions Peter Lazar and Peter O'Brien presentable to an audience—and boy! is that an achievement?

PETE LAZAR
A charming character study of our well-liked producer. Carrying on the tradition of Revue, he hates Sydney beer and Programme Editors. Address all complaints pertaining to libel to Peter, c/o. "Hole in the Wall", Main Quad., Sydney Uni., where they will be duly dealt with. (Please use soft notepaper.)

CHARLIE GOLDBERG
This year's Assistant Stage Manager, listening with awe to words of wisdom from Jim Young. Under such fine tuition, Charlie is now very efficient at hitting nails with hammers, tying knots with rope, cutting wood with saws, and prefixing words with adjectives. It is rumoured that he studies medicine in his spare time.

NANCY CRISPIN-SMITH
After many centuries on the revue stage has graduated to Musical Director. Believes that the only way to get results from ballet girls is to be quietly-spoken and patient. Nancy is shown here holding back two very nasty words after a forgetful chorus girl had asked her what to do next.

BRIAN GRIFFIN
Our decor and costume designer caught in a moment of inspiration. Is often to be found wandering about the place in a dirty and ill-fitting pair of overalls muttering: "Ah, more black...more black." Carries on disgustingly with all the girls in the cast under the pretext of fitting costumes.

HOUSE MANAGER: Angus Teece.
Assistant House Manager: Chester.
Doormen: Graham McPherson and Michael Saunders.
Usherettes: Maree McGrath, Margaret Aldrich, Dorothy Belisario, Beryl Berman, Janice Burchall, Marion Clark, Shirley Collins, Shirley Eveson, Julie Herbert, Gretchen Kent-Morse, Janet McCreadie, Penny Moss and Helen Paton.
Cigarette Girls: Margaret Lockwood, Judith Jarrett, Marjorie McAtamney.

BUSINESS MANAGER: Peggy Fordham.
Assistant Business Manager: Chestef.
Ticket Sales: Frances O'Flynn.
Assistants: Margaret Lockwood, Judith Jarrett, Jan Jones, Jenny Dundas Smith, Graham McPherson and Hugh Macindoe.

STAGE MANAGER: Jim Young.
Assistant Stage Manager: Charles Goldberg.
Chief Mechanist: Barrie Dutton.
Properties: Bob Cameron and David Rogers.
Callgirl (No comment): Philippa Pownall.

DON'T VOTE LABOUR!
VOTE CAESARIAN
FOR BETTER PRODUCTION
WITH LESS TAX CREDITS...

LIGHTING and SOUND: S.U. Film Society.

SCENIC DIRECTOR: Brian Griffin.
Assisted by: Margaret (Call me Please) Lockwood and Sonia Walsh.

COSTUME DESIGN: Brian Griffin.
Costumes executed by: Ann Green.
Assistants: Maureen Blake, Joan Hukell, Margaret Lockwood, Margery Perrett and Toni Perrin.
Wardrobe Mistress: Margot Noseda.
Assisted by: Maureen Blake.

MAKE-UP DIRECTOR: Peter McDonald.
Assistants: Jeanette Clarke, Roslyn Hall, Constance Spurway, and Barry Gillings.

PUBLICITY OFFICER: Tom Torda.

PROGRAMME EDITOR: John Poiner.
Assistant Programme Editor: Gretchen Kent-Morse.
Cover Design: Brian Griffin.
Introduction Page: Emile Mercier.
Sketches and Doodlings: John Poiner.
Photographs: Barry Wollaston.

STAFF MANAGER: John Poiner.

O.C. MAYHEM: Albin balogh.

INTERVAL SLIDES:
Written and Recorded by: Neville Thiele.
Drawn by: John Poiner.

SECRETARY TO S.U.P.: Meg Cox.

DDAVID LLOYD
Don't be misled; he isn't always smiling as he is in this photograph. In private life he is a cranky, (you know the type) schoolteacher. These qualities make him ideal as a producer, and in this capacity he did wonders to improve a lazy and supremely ignorant (his own words) cast.

JOHN POINER
R.I.P. . . . Here lies your ill-begotten and hard-worked programme editor. Believes that never before has anybody done so much work, for so little recognition, and in so little time. Nevertheless, has retained sufficient of his sunny, cheerful nature to smile sweetly at the camera.

MAREE McGRATH
As chief usherette and programme seller, has found for us the prettiest collection of girls to show you to your seats that Revue has seen. Is always full of joy, and carries out the House Manager's directions to the letter, without ever a thought of dissent.

JIM YOUNG
Is behind the scenes again as Stage Manager for his 23,726th revue. He is never to be seen without an electric drill or a lighting schedule in his hand. Despite his harrowed existence, he is still amiable, and answers all queries with: "Don't worry, everything will be O.K. on the night."

GRETCHEN KENT-MORSE
The best assistant any programme editor could wish for (had to say it). Whenever I wanted anything done, all I had to do was ask Gretchen, then sit back in a comfortable (?) Honi Soit chair, and await the result. Despite her youth and all this work, she still found time to smoke a great many of my cigarettes.

GUS TEECE
Despite rumour, it is able to produce his birth certificate. As House Manager can, on a second's notice, give you the telephone number of any usherette, tell you where to buy a drink at interval, or direct you to any male or female toilet in the vicinity of the Wallace Theatre.

ANN GREEN
Ann Green accepted the enormous task of supervising the cutting and sewing of all the "Made to Order" costumes used in the show. If it hadn't been for her, the pretty girls on stage just wouldn't have any clothes to wear, and that wouldn't be any good, would it . . . er . . . would it?

LANCE MULCAHY
A happy-go-lucky soul, who lives for nothing but writing revue music. He doesn't smoke, doesn't . . . well, he is practically without vices. Your programme editor was lucky to overhear the only words he has ever uttered: "Yes Nancy, of course I'll change it Nancy, if you want me to, Nancy."
JACK SPOONER

Will look after YOU!

So why not drop along and see him

When the Performance is Over

"THE HAYDEN"

BL3229 76 PITT STREET, SYDNEY BL3229