The Register

ADRIAN'S 97/98

The Elder Scholarships of Music.—The five candidates who were honored by the examinations for the scholarships with a request to appear before them yesterday were—Miss James, and Messrs. H. W. Kennedy, M. J. Malcolm, A. Otto, and A. Vadorn. Mr. Otto is an organist and pianist, and the other are vocalists. An official announcement of the successful competition will be made by the University Council, to whom the examinations will report. We hear that the Examiners Professor F. S., Mr. W. J. B. Stephenson, Mr. B. S. B., and the Rev. Dr. Paton, have recommended that the scholarships shall be awarded to Mr. Harry Wallace Kennedy, the elder son of Mr. F. W. Kennedy, and Mayor of the Suburb. The fortunate competitor was educated at the South Adelaide Model School, and the Semaphore Collegiate School, and is a clerk in the office of Messrs. D. & J. Fowler, Port Adelaide. He is about nineteen years of age, has a fine tenor voice, but although his advice in his friends he has restrained himself as to singing at concerts; his gift has been magnificently appreciated in St. John's Church, Semaphore, of the choir of which he was a member. For some little time past he has been under the tuition of Mr. L. Norsell.

The Register

ADELAIDE: SATURDAY, APRIL 7, 1894.

The Adelaide University.—At a meeting of the University Council on Friday Professor Fowler was appointed to the position of Professor of Classics. He resigned his nomination as Professor of English, Language and Literature, but consented to carry out the duties of the chair until the appointment of a successor. The nomination of Mr. H. M. W. Kennedy for the Elder Musical Scholarship was confirmed by the Council.