PROFESSOR STRONG RETURNS.

EUROPEAN POLITICS.

"CAUSE FOR ALARM."

Sir Archibald Strong, Jew Professor of English at the University of Adelaide, who was the guest of the University of Oxford, returned to the University on Saturday last. Professor Strong visited London, Paris, Berlin, and various other cities in France and Germany during his stay in those countries.

The English Stage.

Professor Strong was particularly interested in the English stage. He was able to see many of the best productions in London, and he was favorably impressed with the quality of the acting. He especially enjoyed the productions of the Royal Court Theatre, the National Theatre, and the Old Vic Theatre. He was also impressed with the work of the Young Vic Theatre, which he considered to be one of the finest producing companies in the world.

The European Situation.

Sir Archibald Strong also traveled extensively in Europe, visiting Berlin, Paris, Brussels, and other cities. He was particularly interested in the political situation in those countries. He noted that the political conditions were fairly stable in central Europe, while the situation in the Germanic countries was more uncertain. He also noted the rise of nationalism in those countries, which he considered to be a threat to the stability of the region.

Mr. E. W. HOLDEN.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Holden, who was born in Adelaide on March 2, 1896, was recently appointed to a prominent position in the pharmaceutical industry. He is currently working as a research chemist at the Holden Laboratories, a company that specializes in the production of pharmaceuticals. Mr. Holden has been with the company for several years and has made significant contributions to the development of new products.

Man of Commerce.

Another notable South Australian is Mr. John Smith, a successful businessman who has made a significant contribution to the community. He is currently the owner of a large wholesale and retail business in Adelaide, which he has operated for over 20 years. Mr. Smith is well respected in the business community and is known for his philanthropic efforts.

PROF. FRANK BARRY.

Professor Frank Barry, who is currently the head of the Department of History at the University of Adelaide, has been appointed to a new position as the chair of the History Department at the University of Oxford. He is a respected scholar in the field of European history and has made significant contributions to the study of the history of the United Kingdom.

KRISTEN OLSEN.

Kristen Olsen, a student at the University of Adelaide, has been awarded a prestigious fellowship by the Australian Academy of Sciences. She will use the fellowship to pursue advanced studies in the field of astrophysics.

Mr. Ronald M. Smith, a student at the University of Adelaide, has been awarded a scholarship by the Australian Academy of Sciences. He will use the scholarship to pursue advanced studies in the field of astrophysics.

News has been received that Mr. John Smith, a successful businessman who has made a significant contribution to the community, has been appointed to a new position as the chair of the History Department at the University of Oxford. He is a respected scholar in the field of European history and has made significant contributions to the study of the history of the United Kingdom.