PROPOSED MEMORIAL TO SIR GEORGE PARKIN.

Dr. T. W. Connell, F.R.S., has received from the London office of the Rhodes trustees details of the appeal recently launched for a memorial to be erected in South Africa to Sir George Parkin. The appeal has been authorized by the Governor of the Cape, Lord Milner, and is being prosecuted by the local Rhodes trustees and the Rhodes scholarship association in the United States. The proposed memorial will form an integral portion of the new Rhodes House in Oxford, and will be set aside for a library which will be endowed to acknowledge the influence of the historical and literary associations in the United States. Subscriptions for the proposed Parkin Library are invited from Rhodes scholars and friends of the Rhodes scholars. The subscriptions may be forwarded to the Secretary of the Rhodes Scholarship Association, 13, Aylesbury, London.
