EQUAL MARKS FOR TENNYSON MEDAL

Miss Joan Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson, of Croydon, is the recipient of the Tennyson Medal for English literature in the University Intermediate examination.

SEVERE EXAMINATION

In a marked departure from the traditional examination procedures, several students were found to have cheated during their final examinations. The University authorities have launched an investigation into the matter.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

"We have been taught to believe that happiness lies in the future, but the secret of happiness is to be found in the present." - S. H. Smith

UNIVERSITY GRADUATES

No. 7—Mr. E. J. Stribley, M.A.

Mr. E. J. Stribley, who gained his M.A. degree at the last University examinations, secured a credit for the first time in his career, becoming second in the class.

He is a school teacher and has been a resident at the Murray River Agricultural College since 1931.

Mr. G. H. B. Haskard, who obtained his B.Sc. degree at the University, is a school teacher and has been on the staff of the College since 1931.

UNIVERSITY GRADUATES

No. 5—Mr. G. H. B. Haskard, B.Sc.

Mr. G. H. B. Haskard, who obtained his B.Sc. degree at the University, is a school teacher and has been on the staff of the College since 1931.

"Their businesses are to combine mechanical skill with a sound knowledge of English. They must also be able to adapt the results of their research to the requirements of the business office. Their work must be of a mechanical and economic nature." - Sir G. V. Johnson, President of the University.

"Their businesses are to combine mechanical skill with a sound knowledge of English. They must also be able to adapt the results of their research to the requirements of the business office. Their work must be of a mechanical and economic nature." - Sir G. V. Johnson, President of the University.

"Their businesses are to combine mechanical skill with a sound knowledge of English. They must also be able to adapt the results of their research to the requirements of the business office. Their work must be of a mechanical and economic nature." - Sir G. V. Johnson, President of the University.

"Their businesses are to combine mechanical skill with a sound knowledge of English. They must also be able to adapt the results of their research to the requirements of the business office. Their work must be of a mechanical and economic nature." - Sir G. V. Johnson, President of the University.

"Their businesses are to combine mechanical skill with a sound knowledge of English. They must also be able to adapt the results of their research to the requirements of the business office. Their work must be of a mechanical and economic nature." - Sir G. V. Johnson, President of the University.

"Their businesses are to combine mechanical skill with a sound knowledge of English. They must also be able to adapt the results of their research to the requirements of the business office. Their work must be of a mechanical and economic nature." - Sir G. V. Johnson, President of the University.

"Their businesses are to combine mechanical skill with a sound knowledge of English. They must also be able to adapt the results of their research to the requirements of the business office. Their work must be of a mechanical and economic nature." - Sir G. V. Johnson, President of the University.

"Their businesses are to combine mechanical skill with a sound knowledge of English. They must also be able to adapt the results of their research to the requirements of the business office. Their work must be of a mechanical and economic nature." - Sir G. V. Johnson, President of the University.