THE UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE.

Public Examinations Board.

Leaving (including Leaving Commercial) Examination 1925.

REV. P. CARRINGTON, M.A.

Women's Work for Teachers' College.

A recognition of the splendid voluntary social welfare work in the literas of the Teachers' College. Miss Phoebe Watson has been appointed women's welfare officer. Her position will carry a salary of £40 a year in addition to her annual remuneration of £48 as a teacher. She has been very valuable to the college and her work is of great service to the students. Her new duties, which are not limited to the general oversight of the women students in the college, will include the care of the welfare of the students, the maintenance of a high standard of conduct and the promotion of physical welfare and mental health. She will also be responsible for the training of students in the art of teaching and will be expected to give special attention to the welfare of the students in the various departments of the college. Miss Watson has been very successful in her work at the college and has been able to give great assistance to the students. She has been very popular and her work has been much appreciated by the students. She has been a great help to the college and has been able to give great assistance to the students in their work. She has been very successful in her work and has been able to give great assistance to the students in their work.