DEATH OF MR. JAMES GARTRELL

A PHILANTHROPIC MERCHANT

Mr. James Gartrell, a successful merchant of the highest order, the leading manufacturer of boots, shoes and gents' clothing, and a most philanthropic citizen, passed away at his residence last Tuesday, aged about sixty. Mr. Gartrell was a gentleman of the highest type, and his death is a severe and irreparable loss to the community. He was a devoted Christian, and a great benefactor to the Episcopal Church and the Methodist Church. He was a member of the Board of Directors of the Methodist Church, and was a faithful supporter of its work. He was a great contributor to charitable institutions, and his generosity was proverbial. He was a kind and generous man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He leaves a widow and two sons, who will mourn his loss. The funeral will take place at the Episcopal Church, and the services will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Smith, and the Rev. Mr. Jones. The burial will take place in the Episcopal Cemetery.
