CIVIL SERVICE

Applications Received

The number of applications received for the Civil Service examination held on October 1st, 1925, is much lower than in previous years. The examination was held in London, Liverpool, Manchester, and Birmingham.

At the time of the examination, the Civil Service was under the supervision of the Secretary of State for the Home Department. The examination was conducted by a panel of examiners, including experienced officials and university professors.

At the end of the examination, the results were announced, and the successful applicants were notified of their appointment.

The examination was considered to be a fair and objective test of the candidates' abilities, and it was designed to select the most qualified candidates for positions in the Civil Service.

THE MISSING LAW STUDENT

The police in London are investigating the disappearance of a law student, John Smith. The student, who had been studying at the London Law School, was last seen leaving the university library on the evening of October 10th.

The police are interviewing witnesses and checking all public transport records in an effort to locate the student.

Public Examinations

Increased Entries Received

The number of entries for the public examinations has increased significantly this year. The examinations are conducted by the Board of Education, and they are open to all students who meet the eligibility criteria.

The examinations cover a wide range of subjects, including mathematics, science, and English. The results of the examinations will be announced in early December.

LATE MRS. E. JACKSON

Honoured by M.L.C. Old Colwall

Mrs. E. Jackson, who died on October 10th, was a much-loved member of the local community. She was a active member of the local church, and she was known for her kindness and generosity.

At the service of thanksgiving held in the local church, the Rev. J. M. Gladstone delivered a eulogy, and the congregation sang hymns in memory of Mrs. Jackson.

Public Examinations

Now that the public examinations have ended, the University is preparing to announce the results. The examinations were held in October, and they covered a wide range of subjects.

The results will be announced in early December, and they will be available on the University's website and at the local library.

UNNECESSARY OPERATIONS

Taking at the meeting of the council, Dr. H. Smith, the head teacher, expressed concern about the unnecessary operations that are taking place in the school.

The council agreed to investigate the matter further, and they will be taking action to ensure that unnecessary operations do not continue.

ELDER CONSERVATORY

The performance of the student orchestra at the Elder Conservatory was met with mixed reviews. The orchestra, which is made up of local students, has been praised in the past for its musical talent.

The performance was held on October 11th, and it featured music by Beethoven, Mozart, and Chopin.

Rhode Scholarship

An announcement regarding the Rhodes Scholarship is expected to be made in early December. The scholarship is open to all students who meet the eligibility criteria.

The scholarship will cover the cost of tuition and living expenses, and it will provide an opportunity for students to study at a top university in England.
