ANGLICAN ACTIVITIES

(3) Rev. C. H. Nield

Anglicanism in South Australia shows signs of making strides. The recent well-organized, well-publicized exhibition, the festival services in connection with it, and the opening of St Peter’s Cathedral are evidence of a greater interest in the Church. The exhibition was a great success, and it is hoped that the interest of the public will be maintained. The opening of the cathedral was a most impressive event, with a large attendance of clergy and laity. The building is a remarkable structure, and it is hoped that it will become a centre of worship and a place of refuge for all who seek spiritual solace.

Dr. Short, the Bishop of Adelaide, was in attendance at the exhibition, and he was most cordially received. The Bishop is a man of great zeal and energy, and he is doing much to promote the welfare of the Church in South Australia. The exhibition was a great success, and it is hoped that it will serve to strengthen the Church in the eyes of the public.
