His property was not a vintage one and he was a member of the South Australian Wine Society.

The financial structure outlined here is based on a report of $2,322 financial officers which is supported by the Commonwealth structure which is supported by the South Australian Office of the Governor (1971 figures).

Population: 4,000,000
Agriculture: 1,500,000
Manufacturers: 50,000
Retailers: 4,000

The importance of the South Australian wine industry is due to the climate, soil, and character of the wines produced. The wines are known for their fullness and long-lasting flavor.

Economic Growth:

The wine industry plays a significant role in the economy of South Australia. It contributes to the state's gross domestic product and provides employment opportunities.

The wine industry is not only important for its economic impact but also for its cultural significance. Wines produced in South Australia are well-known worldwide and are highly appreciated by connoisseurs.