THE SCIENCE CONGRESS.

South Australian Delegates.

The secretary of the South Australian branch of the Australian Association for the Advancement of Science (W. E. H. Rennie) reports that the following members have intimated their intention to attend the conference:—Professors H. E. Rennie, H. C. Bailey, B. M. Biddle, A. J. G. Cameron, A. C. Francis, W. A. Grant, T. Harvey, H. Jones, E. Wood Jones, H. L. D. Jarvie, J. A. J. Angel, A. C. Paton, W. E. Paton, A. D. Peacock, D. W. Peacock, C. F. Jenkin, C. D. Johnson, J. D. Swain, and S. W. Percival. The Executive Committee have also decided to extend a cordial welcome to any other members of the branch, and the secretary is requested to forward any communications to the above address.

PROFESSOR E. H. RENNIE,
President-Elect of the Association.

The South Australian Orchestra.

A SPLIT END CONCERT.

The citizens of Adelaide have good reason to be proud of their orchestra, which is a great asset to the community. It has been established for over ninety years and has performed in many parts of the world. The orchestra is made up of some of the finest musicians in Australia, and they work hard to maintain their high standards. The concerts are usually held in the Palais Royal and are highly attended. The orchestra is directed by a distinguished conductor, and the music performed is of the highest quality. The audience is always enthusiastic, and the concerts are a source of great pleasure to all who attend.

The next concert is scheduled for Saturday, January 5th, and it promises to be a brilliant event. The orchestra will perform under the direction of the renowned conductor, and the programme will include some of the finest works by classical composers. The audience is eagerly anticipating the concert, and it is expected to be a sell-out. The orchestra is grateful for the support of its patrons and looks forward to continued success.

The South Australian Orchestra is an integral part of the cultural life of Adelaide, and it continues to provide a source of entertainment and inspiration to all who hear its music. It is a testament to the skill and dedication of its members and their passion for music. The orchestra is an important institution in Adelaide, and it plays a vital role in the community.