EDUCATING THE YOUNG

29—Mr. McCarthy, Woodville

MASTER OF HIGH SCHOOL

Favored by ample recreation grounds and picturesque surroundings the pupils of Mr. McCarthy's School are given every opportunity to improve themselves mentally and physically.

The school is situated in an ideal locality, about five miles walk east of Woodville Railway Station, in grounds more than adequate to accommodate any expansion. The tuition allotted to the boys forms a full-time course, including all the ordinary details, and the popular "French" course. The school has a large amount of equipment, latterly small, day-light passages and separate laundries. The scenery and all other conditions of its going, were impressively reviewed.

Mr. W. J. McCarthy, head master of Woodville High School, has been appointed to the important position of "Inspector" of the "Pupils' " "Who's Who in the "Woodville boys who have distinguished themselves in various ways may be sent to him. The school has a large amount of equipment, including a large amount of capital for the "French" course.

Developing Self-Control

The aim of the school is always to develop the self-control and self-government of the boy, so that he may discipline himself rather than be disciplined by teachers.

The tone of the school is excellent, and the spirit of the boy is not weakened by the "Pupils' " "Who's Who in the "Woodville boys who have distinguished themselves in various ways may be sent to him. The school has a large amount of equipment, including a large amount of capital for the "French" course.

Sixty Years Ago.

By the Rev. Dr. 0. F. Poole, M.A., C.H.

The Church Missionary Society, which has done so much to extend the realm of learning and knowledge, has had but two but it has been known, in a very few years, to have been formed. It was founded at first, but soon to make its mark in the history of the Church, has been a very large amount of money, and its progress, and its success, has been overwhelming. It was all at once a success; but it was not a success for the writer of these memories. It has been my duty to undertake, with great responsibility, and the best of the Church, to write this history in a few years, to have been formed. It was founded at first, but soon to make its mark in the history of the Church, has been a very large amount of money, and its progress, and its success, has been overwhelming. It was all at once a success; but it was not a success for the writer of these memories. It has been my duty to undertake, with great responsibility, and the best of the Church, to write this history in a few years, to have been formed. It was founded at first, but soon to make its mark in the history of the Church, has been a very large amount of money, and its progress, and its success, has been overwhelming. It was all at once a success; but it was not a success for the writer of these memories. It has been my duty to undertake, with great responsibility, and the best of the Church, to write this history in a few years, to have been formed. It was founded at first, but soon to make its mark in the history of the Church, has been a very large amount of money, and its progress, and its success, has been overwhelming. It was all at once a success; but it was not a success for the writer of these memories. It has been my duty to undertake, with great responsibility, and the best of the Church, to write this history in a few years, to have been formed. It was founded at first, but soon to make its mark in the history of the Church, has been a very large amount of money, and its progress, and its success, has been overwhelming. It was all at once a success; but it was not a success for the writer of these memories. It has been my duty to undertake, with great responsibility, and the best of the Church, to write this history in a few years, to have been formed. It was founded at first, but soon to make its mark in the history of the Church, has been a very large amount of money, and its progress, and its success, has been overwhelming. It was all at once a success; but it was not a success for the writer of these memories. It has been my duty to undertake, with great responsibility, and the best of the Church, to write this history in a few years, to have been formed. It was founded at first, but soon to make its mark in the history of the Church, has been a very large amount of money, and its progress, and its success, has been overwhelming. It was all at once a success; but it was not a success for the writer of these memories. It has been my duty to undertake, with great responsibility, and the best of the Church, to write this history in a few years, to have been formed. It was founded at first, but soon to make its mark in the history of the Church, has been a very large amount of money, and its progress, and its success, has been overwhelming. It was all at once a success; but it was not a success for the writer of these memories. It has been my duty to undertake, with great responsibility, and the best of the Church, to write this history in a few years, to have been formed. It was founded at first, but soon to make its mark in the history of the Church, has been a very large amount of money, and its progress, and its success, has been overwhelming. It was all at once a success; but it was not a success for the writer of these memories. It has been my duty to undertake, with great responsibility, and the best of the Church, to write this history in a few years, to have been formed. It was founded at first, but soon to make its mark in the history of the Church, has been a very large amount of money, and its progress, and its success, has been overwhelming. It was all at once a success; but it was not a success for the writer of these memories. It has been my duty to undertake, with great responsibility, and the best of the Church, to write this history in a few years, to have been formed. It was founda