EDUCATIONAL PROGRESS

Both in Victoria and New South Wales, where they have their quarters in the country, and in the cities, and in the towns, and in the suburbs, there is a spirit of education. One is in presence, near, in the heart of the city, in the heart of the town, in the heart of the suburb.

Miss Patricia Hawker, daughter of the late Dr. Hawker, has secured that all of them, the boys, the girls, the men, the women, the children, the old people, the young people, all of them, shall go forward.

The annual Albert Park School, which is the school of the West, will be held on the 15th of July, at 3 p.m. The school will be opened by Mr. A. E. Trigg, the principal of the school, and will be attended by a large number of the students and teachers.

The school is open to all, and all are welcome. It is a fine way to start the year, and a fine way to finish it.

RODHS SCHOLARS.

LONDON, June 7.

The average age of the Rhodes Scholars is 23, with an average age of 21 for other scholars. Many of the Rhodes Scholars have had some university education, and they have been selected from a list of over 100 candidates who were interviewed by a committee of experts.

When the financial situation of the Committee of the Rhodes Trust was discussed, it was agreed that the board of directors should be allowed to make the final decision.

The board of directors have decided that the financial situation is such that the Committee of the Rhodes Trust should be allowed to make the final decision.

GREAT NERGO.

EDUCATION FOR CITIZENSHIP

The third conference of the Education Society will be held in Adelaide, in the School of Arts, on the 20th of July, at 2 p.m. The conference will be attended by a large number of the students of the school.

The conference will be opened by Mr. J. McKellar, the principal of the school, and will be attended by a large number of the students of the school.

The conference is open to all, and all are welcome. It is a fine way to start the year, and a fine way to finish it.

SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY

THE COUNCIL APPOINTED

The first session of the Council will be held at the University of Melbourne, on the 20th of July, at 3 p.m.

The Council will be opened by Mr. J. McKellar, the principal of the school, and will be attended by a large number of the students of the school.

The conference is open to all, and all are welcome. It is a fine way to start the year, and a fine way to finish it.

RODHS SCHOLARS STIPEND

OFFICIALS TO THE NEWS

The annual scholarship of the Rhodes Trust has been increased from 2000 to 2500.