SIR EDGARWOOD DAVIES

Sir Edgarwood Davies, head of the department of German at the University of Sydney, is in Europe on leave of absence. While in Europe, he has arranged to publish in the English language the work of Julius Kindelmann on the "Travels of the English Deputys of Order" which has already been published in the "Gesellschaft der Erfurter Deputat 1821-1921". His work has been very popular with the public, and it is said, will come out in the near future. Davies is a graduate of the University of Oxford, and has been teaching German at the University of Sydney for over twenty years.

THE IMPERIAL DEBATING TEAM

The Imperial Debating Team, which will arrive in Melbourne this morning from London, consists of Mr. J. K. Bantely, president of the University; Mr. R. W. Austin, senior debater; Mr. R. W. Harvey, junior debater; and Mr. A. H. B. Holman, junior debater.

COMMERCE STUDENTS' ANNUAL DINNER

The Adelaide University Commerce Students' Association held its annual dinner at the Victoria Hotel last night. The President of the association, Mr. J. A. Keddie, proposed the toast of "The University".

Mr. W. A. K. McKeown, in proposing the toast of "The President", stated that he was sure that Mr. J. A. Keddie was the right man to propose the toast, as he had been a constant support of the University in all its efforts to advance the cause of higher education in South Australia. He said that Mr. Keddie had been a leader in the fight for the establishment of a University in South Australia and had been actively engaged in the work of the University since its inception.

The toast to "The University" was then proposed and seconded, and the dinner concluded with a speech by Mr. J. A. Keddie, in which he expressed his appreciation of the support of the Commerce Students' Association and his hope that the University would continue to grow and prosper.

SIR DOUGLAS MAWMAY IS BEST

The annual dinner of the University of Sydney was held last night at the Town Hall. Sir Douglas Mawmay, who is well known in Sydney, was elected the best speaker of the year.

He was introduced by Mr. J. R. Bligh, who said that Sir Douglas Mawmay had been a friend of the University for many years and had always supported it in its efforts to advance the cause of higher education in Sydney.

Sir Douglas Mawmay, in his speech, spoke of the importance of a university education and of the need for it to be free from the influence of politics and sectional interests. He said that the University was the only institution where men could come together to study the great problems of life and to learn the truths of the universe.

He concluded by saying that he was proud to be associated with the University and that he would do all in his power to help it to continue to grow and prosper.

THE REGENT

The Regent is a new newspaper that has recently been established in Melbourne. It is published weekly and is devoted to the interests of the students of the University of Melbourne and the adjacent Colleges of the University.

The first issue of the Regent was published last week and it was well received by the students. It is said to be the first newspaper ever to be published in Melbourne that is devoted entirely to the interests of the students of the University.

The Regent is published by the Melbourne University Students' Union and it is said to be the first newspaper ever to be published in Melbourne that is devoted entirely to the interests of the students of the University.

The Regent is a news and opinion newspaper that is published every Friday. It is written by students for students and it is said to be the first newspaper ever to be published in Melbourne that is devoted entirely to the interests of the students of the University.

The Regent is published by the Melbourne University Students' Union and it is said to be the first newspaper ever to be published in Melbourne that is devoted entirely to the interests of the students of the University.

The Regent is a news and opinion newspaper that is published every Friday. It is written by students for students and it is said to be the first newspaper ever to be published in Melbourne that is devoted entirely to the interests of the students of the University.

The Regent is published by the Melbourne University Students' Union and it is said to be the first newspaper ever to be published in Melbourne that is devoted entirely to the interests of the students of the University.