Dear Sir Ronald,

My aunt, Miss Dampier, asks me to answer your letter.

We shall be glad to let Trinity College library have my father's copy of your book 'The Genetical Theory of Natural Selection.' They could have had it earlier, as the librarian looked through my father's books soon after his death, and took any he wished to have.

Yours sincerely,

Margaret Anderson