

3 January 1944

Dear Atkins,

Thanks for your letter, and enclosure which I return. I had no expectation that you were considering immediate publication, but I think that you have written up this interesting observation with excellent judgment and I should not hesitate to put my name to your note if you so wish it, though the work is essentially yours and my part in the matter has been very slight.

Yours sincerely,