

26th April, 1957.

My dear Luca,

What a magnificent gift you have sent me in the French book on Etruscan paintings. I shall enjoy it greatly myself, and I believe it may be yet more enjoyed if on retirement I hand it over to the College Library, where, I believe, it will be greatly welcomed by the Librarian, Philip Grierson, whom you perhaps remember.

I am glad you got on well with Todd, for I am sure his organization is genuinely anxious to lay a solid foundation of fact for the discussion of these problems.

With all respectful regards to your family.

Sincerely yours,
