Dear Fisher.

Perhaps it would be best for us to say nothing about amendments to "The Outline. I shall say nothing, and you do as you think best. I don't much like your words or mine. If anything should or has to be done, please consider the following. Words in [ ] are the new words.

... the benefit received per child [and the vacancy premium] should be.

Yours,

L Darwin