Dear Fisher,

I will do what I can in the matter of MacBride. But I doubt if we can do much harm in the scientific world, if he shaped his name, because he is so well known. Or rather internal roll in our weak scientific state would do us more harm.

Yours hastily

D.D.