

DICTIONARY OF NATIONAL BIOGRAPHY

From Mr. L. G. Wickham Legg

New College, Oxford

24 April 1946

Dear Professor

I have been thinking over your letter of the 17th about Karl Pearson during the last week, and I am afraid you are right. The distance between us seems too great to be bridged, and I am therefore asking the Press to send you the cheque, and must get some one else to write the life.

Yours sincerely

L. G. Wickham Legg