

5th March, 1956.

My dear Fieller,

In addition to other candidates for the International Institute we are this year putting forward the name of Norman Bailey, the stochastic processist at Oxford. It would be nice if you felt like supporting him, and if you let me know I will have the form sent to you.

Sincerely yours,