Dear Professor Friberg,

You may be interested to see the enclosed four letters, two to the British Medical Journal and two this year to Nature. I think they show some progress in this discussion, and especially the data from the Maudsley Hospital removed an obstacle on which much reliance was being placed.

I wonder how your own research in Lund has gone?

Sincerely yours,

Ence.

Professor L. Friberg.