

11th. February 1966.

My dear Cross,

Thanks for your letter. I have no doubt you will now have little difficulty with naturalisation.

I think you are probably right that it would be better for your paper to be signed and supported by one of your colleagues of the last ten years, rather than by myself, whose contact was only too brief.

Yours sincerely,