My dear Fisher,

You very kindly gave me some advice in regard to the curves illustrating the relation between length and volume of plankton organisms — I have embodied this in a scheme by which counts of plankton animals are represented volumetrically instead of numerically and venture to enclose a paper showing its application.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]