

19th January, 1955.

My dear Jan,

It was a great pleasure to get your card, as I did, soon after my return from India. I hope you make an incredible fortune in Venezuela, which I suppose most people are doing there! In any case it must be a nice country to see, though ten years seems rather a lot, perhaps you said two though. If so, I shall still be in Cambridge when you come back, though I imagine Keith will be occupying some large-sized chair!

Sincerely yours,
