

2nd. May 1950.

Dear Professor Jackson,

Thank you for your letter telling me about your congress on Information Theory planned for September. The programme sounds most interesting, but I do not believe that I ought to undertake a part in it. The fact is I find I can only do a limited amount of work.

Yours sincerely,