

1st March, 1956.

My dear Bernard,

Many thanks for sending me your offprint on melanism, which I enjoyed very much. I should hope as usual to spend a few days in Oxford in the first half of July, so long as an elderly and purblind associate is not too much of a load to the active members of a dominula party. Probably it depends on how Sheppard feels about it.

Sincerely yours,